Advanced Contra Dance: with Dugan Murphy & Nova
Contra dancing with more complex choreography, unusual figures and transitions, and other challenging elements.

Advance Waltz Variations: with Bonnie Carpenter & Steve Tossey music by Judy & Warren Waldron
A variety of Advanced waltz styles will be taught and may include the Reverse Waltz, a Hesitation Waltz, Pivots, Skaters Waltz and a Spanish Waltz. Dancers at advanced level should already be very comfortable with a Rotary/turning Waltz and have an strong frame to lead/follow the various styles.

Bachata: with Nathan Easley & Vanessa Larkins
Students in this workshop will learn basic fundamentals of bachata that include footwork, different partner holds, traveling, stylization, and turns. No previous bachata experienced required as this is a very beginner friendly dance.

Beginning Waltz with Deborah Denenfeld & Rick Szumski music by Judy & Warren Waldron
This workshop will focus on the basics of beautiful waltzing. Footwork is just the start. Hearing and dancing to the music while maintaining great partner connection provides the foundation for romantically gliding around the room. Turning as a couple while waltzing (rotary) will be explored, as well as executing an underarm turn.

Bhangra: with Georges Augustin
Bhangra is a high-energy folk dance from India and Pakistan. Come prepared to sweat!

Caller's Workshop "Choreography Analysis" with Dugan Murphy,
Discussion and activities to discern what makes a contra dance sequence good vs. bad and complex vs. simple. Callers will leave with a better understanding of what choreography choices are appropriate when and what is probably never worth choosing.

Connection in Dance with Blues: with Ben Douglas
A Blues dancing workshop focusing on connection in dance. You'll leave this workshop with a better understanding of how to connect to your dance partner, the music, and yourself. We'll also look at close embrace, a little dance etiquette, and give you more confidence to attend a social blues dance.

Flourishes: with Alexandra Deis-Laudy
Alex will teach flourishes for swings, courtesy turns, petronellas, heys, and more! Come prepared to try both sides of the flourishes (even if that's a new thing for you!), to be receptive to feedback, and to give feedback about your personal needs.

Intermediate Waltz with Michael French & Barbara Ramlow music by Kelsey & Kristen
Join us in going beyond the basics with Cross-Step Waltz, one of our favorites, with variations, flourishes, partnering and more. Cross-Step is perfect for waltzing to slower music and allows you to enjoy the flow and connection with your partner.

Moves that Swap Roles: with Dennis Wise
Learn several simple moves and complex flourishes that will swap your role. We will also discuss etiquette of role swapping. We can then run to the advanced contra and try out the moves we learned.

Musician's Jam & Enjoy with Jim Coppock
This workshop is an open session with something for everyone. We'll take turns choosing tunes and tempos, with space for brand new players and hot doggers alike. Bring your music, play by ear, or just chill out and enjoy the music.

Musician's Workshop: with Nova
Come learn at the feet of the great Musicians of the 2019 Pigtown Fling feature band., as they share experiences and answer questions and maybe jam a little.

Raven/Lark Flow & Glide Contra Dance: with Alexandra Deis-Laudy
Flowing contras to start your afternoon. Delight in the choreographic marvels of mad robins, pousettes and heys! This session will use the gender-free terms of Larks and Ravens. Whether you've danced to these terms before or this is your first time trying them, all are welcome!

Yoga with Ami Blue
Slow down your Saturday with a gentle flow yoga class guided by breath and movement, accessible to all dancers.
