

PigTown Workshop Schedule 2024

10:00am	Coffee and Pastries available	Cafeteria
10:30a– 12:00p	FlatFoot Come to watch or come to dance as award winning instructor and master flat-footer T. Paul Anderegg from North Carolina introduces the student to the funny stories, history, styles, steps and all-out fun of Appalachian percussive step dance. Music by Deborah L. Clark (of Changeling). No special shoes or partner required.	Theater
10:30a- 12:00p	Advanced Waltz Have you mastered the turning waltz and looking for a challenge? Come learn the cross step with Erich Gansmuller leading the way.	Gym
12:00p – 2:00p	Lunch served	Cafeteria
12:30p – 1:15p	Open Dancing The Queen City Consort, based in Cincinnati, includes JoAnne DeGreg on piano, Kathy Woods on violin, Astrid Mast on flute, and Doug Mast on accordion and mandolin. Expect a wide variety of dance music, including waltzes, polkas, schottisches, and other dances.	Gym
12:30p – 1:15p	Musician’s Jam – Lead by Rick Boyce	Theater
1:30p – 2:30p	Back Pocket Flourishes Get ready to expand your repertoire with new moves to tuck into your back pocket ready to be unleashed at the perfect moment. Whether you're a seasoned dancer or just starting out, Beth Mast promises to teach you the when’s and how’s to add extra connections with other dancers. Music by Deborah L. Clark (of Changeling).	Theater
1:30p– 3:00p	English Country Dance Mike White calling to The Cincinnati English Country Dance Band: Astrid Mast on flute; JoAnne DeGreg on piano and recorder; Kathy Woods on fiddle; Doug Mast on accordion, mandolin, and piano; and Ed Strelau on fiddle. Go back in time to communicate your personal English Country Dance style.	Gym
3:30p – 5:30p	Challenging Contras Elixir playing to Nils’s favorite mind-bending contra dances from the best, most twisted minds experimenting with contra dance choreography today.	Gym
4:30p - 8:30p	Maya Indian Food Truck with food for purchase	Outside
6:00p – 7:30p	Motown Sing-Along Robin Roland would like you to join him and his guitar to sing-along to his favorite Motown songs. Song sheets are provided.	Theater